Jobbers and Manufacturers Indorse Chamber's "Better Acquaintance Week" Project.

ENTERTAIN BUYERS

Tentative Program Includes River Excursion, Theatre Parties, Dinner and Cabaret.

salers and manufacturers, embracing a majority of the membership of the Chamber of Commerce Bureau of Trade Extension, voted last night to carry out plans submitted by the bureau providing for a "Better Acquaintance Week," next August, designed to attract to this market the merchants of Virginia, North and South Carolina. The tentative program adopted fixes the date as August 11-16 inclusive.

The project was ratified after a spirited discussion, which followed a dinner at the Jefferson Hotel, to which were invited the members of the Trade Extension Bureau and a limited number of non-members. It was outlined Chamber of Commerce Bureau of Trade of non-members. It was outlined the report of President Broaddus, the bureau, who detailed the work of the organization for the first eight month's since its founding. Several merchants, while expressing individual preferences for other plans, declared their willingness to support the one recommended, as a step in the fight direction.

To Provide Entertainment,
The central idea of "Better Acquaintance Week," as outlined by the bureau and adopted, is to introduce into the business relations of Richmond whole-business relations of Richmond wholesalers and their customers the personal note which, it is felt, was been lacking. To this end it is planned to provide during this week a series of entertainments arranged especially with the view of providing diversion for the visiting merchants and buyers.

Tentatively the program suggests that shortly before August 11 the houses call in all of their salesmen in the territories from which merchants are coming. The salesmen with deputations from the city forces will act are coming. The salesmen with deputations from the city forces will act as reception committees and meet visitors at the trains. On Monday of "Better Acquaintance Week" the visitors will be taken to the bureau head-quarters, where they will be provided with badges, free street car and theatre tickets, and a bound booklet containing coupons entitling them to admission to the various entertainments arranged in their honor.

The diversions of the rest of the week are to be in the evening, leaving the day open for the transaction of business. On Tuesday evening it is planned to give a buffet supper and cabaret performance on the Richmond Hotel roof garden, to be followed Wednesday evening with a theatre

Wednesday evening with a theatre party, and Thursday evening with a moonlight excursion down the river. A get-together theatre party on Friday evening, preceded by talks by the Mayor and Chamber of Commerce officials, and a baseball party Saturday afternoon, will round out the week.

Need More Members. In order to carry out the program, the bureau reported, it will be necessary to double the present member-ship of thirty-two. President Broad-dus was authorized last night to apdus was authorized last night to appoint sixteen committees of two members each to make a personal canvass among the wholesalers and manufacturers of the city for this purpose. The committees will be named at a meeting to be held to-day. Two firms joined last night voluntarily.

In connection with the entertainments of the week Precident Parents.

ments of the week, President Broad-dus suggested that a zone system of refunding fares be adopted to sup-plant the one in force now. A mer-chant living within 100 miles of litchmond, it was urged, should secure the refunding of his railroad fare by buying a smaller quantity of goods than one who has come 250 miles.

It is proposed to give publicity to "Better Acquaintance Week" through the sales forces on the road, through a system of letters by the bureau and firms, and through a public proclama-tion from Mayor Ainslie.

Kaufmann Favors Excursion.
The only atternative plan was proposed by I. H. Kaufmann, who favored a system of excursions during the buy-by John C. Freeman, O. H. Funsten, T. M. Carrington, E. B. Sydnor, W. M. Hill, W. G. Long, Hugh Antrim, W. H. Roberts, E. T. Harrison, W. T. Dabney, W. T. Reed, and others. Besides the speakers, the dinner was

NO GENERAL FIGHT

Republicans Discuss Attitude Toward Wilson's Appointments.

Washington, April 15.—Republican Senators have determined to hold up and demand explanation of the proposed removal of a Republican official of the government if it appears that a change may have been decided upon by the administration "for political reasons."

This decision, informally approved at a party conference to-day, is coupled with a determination not to make any general fight on President Wilson's appointments, or to attempt retailatory attacks against the Democrats who prevented the confirmation of over 1,800 of President Taft's nominations in the last session.

A committee, consisting of Senators Burton, Townsend, Clarke of Wyoming, Lippitt and Oliver, was named to outline a general policy for the Republicans. The twenty-eight Republican Senators present at to-day's confepence informally agreed to question appointments only when it might appear that a competent official had been removed and a new appointments named to a system of excursions during the buying period, which would bring the buyers to Richmond free of charge and without obligation to buy. The plan, he said, has been adopted with good results by Baltimore.

Discussion brought out the general opinion that while Mr. Kaufmann's plan was calculated to make a atronger appeal to the merchants, and would meet with a larger response than the one proposed, the slender resources of the bureau forbids attempting it this year.

With the growth of the membership and the experience gained from the experience gained from the Experient about to be tried the more pretentious plan, it was agreed, will be given a trial later.

Horace F. Smith presided over the meeting, and called upon a dozen men for short talks. Warm speeches in favor of the bureau's plan were made by John C. Freeman, O. H. Funsten, T. W. Carrington F. S. Suds. W. W.

YOUNG BRIDE IS PROSTRATED

Police Asked to Search for Dr. Lewis W. Hoppin.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, April 15.—John J. Hoppin, of Orange, N. J., a brother-inlaw of Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr., formerly Mrs. Grover Cleveland, asked the police of this city to-day to search for his brother, Dr. Lewis W. Hoppin, who disappeared on Monday. Dr. Hoppin is a resident of Kingston, Ontario, and was visiting his brother on his honeymoon. His bride is prostrated, and a physician had to be called in. John J. Hoppin is president of a machine company of Belleville, N. Y.

It is thought that the missing man, who is thirty-six years old, is a victim of asphasia. He has suffered from vertigo since he was sandbagied and robbed in Kingston, Ont., a week after his wedding.

Schooners Totally Wrecked. Lubec, Me., April 15.—Straying from their courses in a heavy fog, two three-masted lumber schooners, the Seguin, of Portland, and the W. O. Goodman, of Boston, were totally wrecked to-day on Liberty Point, at the entrance to the Bay of Fundy. The crews escaped.
